

GUIDING PRINCIPLES

- Celebrating diversity - every student should be treated equally regardless of their background
- According to the safeguarding principle, any threat should be reported and everyone should be free to report any form of abuse
- Continuous learning - learning safeguarding trends and continuously improving its environment to promote a safe space to women
- Empathy - practicing empathy throughout the safeguarding journey:
 - prevention, incident reporting, investigation, taking action, and ensuring corrective measures.
- Confidentiality- Use of secure online systems to store sensitive information about project participants, including contact details.
